

Pro D Day Agenda: Indigenous/Anti-Racism Focus Monday, Nov 30th 9:00am-2:30pm

 For Health/Safety, please check-in via Google Docs for the day

9:00am – Housekeeping details (Susan)

9:10am – Acknowledgement and Opening SEL Game (Cailey) – 5 min.
(please have a red, yellow, green item to hold up)

9:15am – Introduction (Janelle):
In response to 2020 protests....
Deltalearns new anti-racism website

Privilege Video (Janelle to share video) – 5-10min

Group Discussion-

- How can/do we support students when our experiences have been different?
- How do we become more aware of our own bias?
- How does our understanding of bias reflect in our lessons? (inclusive? diverse? etc).
- Yes, we have bias but does it impact how you respond to your kids?

Rationale for website:

- How can we respond to student questions/concerns around racism?
- What can we do in our roles as educators as we seek to take anti-racism seriously?
- How do we move forward in a way that takes this moment seriously but doesn't restrict it to a moment in time?

10:00am – Anti-racism Website (<https://deltalearns.ca/antiracism/>)

- Browse by selves for 45min. Please prepare a response to the following questions as you browse for discussion after.

Guiding Questions:

- Identify 2 areas you liked the best. Why?
- Share something that was new learning for you?
- What was something you learned that changed your thinking/perspective?
- Anything you disagree with?
- Are these issues in our Brooke community? School? Classroom?

10:45am - Coffee/Snacks-Provided by your own kitchen☺

11:00am – Rejoin Zoom

- Discuss website in small groups (Susan to split into Breakout Groups)
 - o Discuss guiding questions in group

12:00pm – Lunch Break

12 :45pm – Delta Learns Indigenous Education Website

(<https://deltalearns.ca/indigenouseducation/>)

- Many new resources added this year to the site. Please take a look and see what you can incorporate into your lessons.

1:30-2:30- Self-Directed Learning

2:30 Enjoy your evening!